

Bidding and Buying at Manshed Auctions Australia Australia

Buyers should refer to the full Auction Terms & Conditions and familiarise themselves with the auction conditions and fees before registering and bidding.

Buyers paying by bank deposit should transfer funds to the following account:

Name: Levy Marketing & Promotions Pty Ltd trading as Manshed Auctions Australia

BSB:                032 099 (Westpac North Sydney)

Account No.   65 5555

Please include your Surname or Invoice number as reference on the deposit.

Key Information for Buyers:

- Caveat Emptor (buyer beware) applies to each and every lot.
- All buyers must register before bidding
- Bidders can register before the auction online or at the live auction
- All successful bidders must pay a buyer's premium on top of the final hammer price
- The buyers premium is indicated when registering to bid and may vary between auctions
- The minimum buyer's premium for any bidder is $5.50 (including GST)
- Floor bidders are required to make immediate payment for their items
- Online, absent and telephone bidders must pay within 48 hours of closure of the auction.
- Items must be paid for before a post/freight quote can be provided
- Invoices will be issued to all successful bidders within 24 hours of closure of the auction
- Successful bidders must make arrangements to collect their items within 5 business days following the auction.
- Whilst a packing and freight service is provided on most items, please check with us before bidding on large or fragile items to ensure your item may be posted/freighted and associated costs
- If you require your items to be insured in transit (freight company or Aust Post) you must advise us in writing. Insurance is not assumed and must be requested
- Eftpos and credit card facilities (Mastercard & Visa) are available to pay for your items live and over the phone – Merchant fees do apply on credit card transactions to cover our cost of providing this service

- Manshed Auctions Australia takes no responsibility for lost or damaged items posted/freighted whatsoever.

The full Auction Terms & Conditions can be found on this website and will be displayed at the registration desk at the Auction premises on the day of the auction.