

CONSIGNOR AGREEMENT CONDITIONS FOR AUCTION SALE OF GOODS

- Seller Fees/Commissions are agreed as per completed on this form.
- The consignor warrants that he/she has authority to enter into this agreement with the Auctioneer.
- It is agreed that the Auctioneer is authorised to sell the goods on behalf of the Consignor and that the goods are the lawful property of the consignor or as represented by his/her agent, In the event of a legal dispute over the ownership of the said goods neither the Auctioneers nor its agents will be held legally liable for the disposal of said goods.
- It is agreed that prospective purchasers of the goods shall be entitled to inspect the goods at our auction premises at Shed 14, 36 Leighton Place Hornsby NSW or wherever the place the goods are sold by appointment or during advertised viewing times. We reserve the right to amend viewing times as necessary.
- Goods not sold at auction may be sold by Manshed Auctions Australia by public treaty following the auction for an amount no less than the agreed reserve price without further reference to the consignor whilst the goods remain in their possession.
- The consignor has not made any false representations regarding the goods condition, authenticity or age.
- Any reserve or minimum price is by written agreement only.
- Any estimates or opinion given for an anticipated sale price should be used as a guide only.
- Consignors agree that goods shall be sold by the auctioneer with no guaranteed selling price, unless specifically otherwise agreed and that agreement is in writing.
- It is agreed that while the Auctioneer shall endeavour to take all reasonable care in handling and storing the goods, the Auctioneer only accepts the goods on condition that the Auctioneer is not responsible for loss or damage of any kind.
- It is agreed that the Auctioneer is required to account for the proceeds of the sale of the goods to the consignor within 14 days after payment by the bidder.
- We are a common carrier and advise the customer to insure their own goods whilst in transport. Manshed Auctions Australia takes no responsibility for the goods whilst in transit under any circumstances.
- It is agreed that the goods are to be sold by auction on the Auctioneer’s usual Terms and Conditions of Sale, a copy of which has been inspected by the Consignor prior to his signature of this agreement.
