

Bidding and Buying at Manshed Auctions Australia

Buyers should refer to the full Auction Terms & Conditions and familiarise themselves with the auction conditions and fees before registering and bidding.

Buyers paying by bank deposit should transfer funds to the following account:

Name: Manshed Auctions

BSB: 032-111

Account Number: 486943

Please include your Surname or Invoice number as reference on the deposit.

Key Information for Buyers:

- All intending bidders must register before bidding
- Online bidders must register with HiBid at hibid.com
- All other bidders must register directly with Manshed Auctions Australia using the forms provided on our website for this purpose
- Caveat Emptor (buyer beware) applies to each and every lot
- While a packing and freight service is provided on most items, please check with us before bidding on large or fragile items to ascertain that your item can be posted or freighted and what the associated costs might be
- All successful bidders must pay a buyer's premium on top of the final hammer price
- The standard buyer's premium is 19.25% on railway items, and 16.5% on all other items (unless stated otherwise in the auction description), inclusive of GST on the premium

- The minimum buyer's premium for any bidder is $5.50 (inclusive of GST on the premium)
- Floor bidders are required to make immediate payment for their items
- Invoices will be issued within 24 hours after the closure of the auction to all successful bidders who have at that time not yet paid for their items in full
- Bidders who receive an invoice must pay for their items within 24 hours after the issuing of the invoice
- EFTPOS and credit card facilities (Mastercard & Visa) are available to pay for your items live and over the phone; merchant fees apply on credit card transactions
- Successful bidders must make arrangements to collect their items within 5 business days following the auction
- Items must be paid for in full before a postage or freight quote can be provided
- Items posted or freighted are not specifically covered by insurance in transit unless you advise us in writing to arrange that your items are to be insured by the freight company or Australia Post to a specific monetary value
- Manshed Auctions Australia takes no responsibility for lost or damaged items posted or freighted whatsoever

The full Auction Terms & Conditions can be found on our website and will be displayed at the registration desk at the auction premises on the day of the auction.