

SELLING YOUR ITEMS THROUGH MANSHEDED AUCTIONS

Selling through Manshed Auctions Australia is easy and designed to be stress free. Whether you have a large collection or a single item we can cater to your needs. We specialise in motorcycle and motorcycle parts, old railway items, and interesting manshed collectables.

We do not auction general bric-a-brac, household furniture or items, artwork, jewellery or registered motor vehicles. We leave that instead to the specialists in those fields so we can concentrate on motorcycles, motorcycle parts, old railway items, and specialty manshed collectables.

We strive to provide exceptional and friendly service, confidentiality and attention to detail. We are enthusiasts just like you and want to make our auction events memorable for all the right reasons.

Manshed Auctions Australia has a transparent fee policy. Everything is clearly listed in our Terms and Conditions. There are no hidden fees or charges, just our very competitive selling fee which is fully disclosed to you up front.

We are as passionate about these items as you are, so you can always count on our care and attention on every item.

As we say at Manshed Auctions Australia, your passion is our business!

LOCATION

Auctions are typically conducted online via the HiBid auctions platform. Sellers can watch and listen in to the selling process live online via HiBid as the bidders make their bids. Every online auction advertised on the Manshed Auctions Australia website links to the relevant online auction site at HiBid.

On-site auctions are also our speciality and can be organised by arrangement.

SELLER'S FEE

A seller's commission (i.e., consignment fee) will be charged for every item sold by Manshed Auctions Australia, whether under the hammer or by negotiation after the auction. The standard seller's commission is 15% plus GST, but where the seller requests that Manshed Auctions Australia collect the item for consignment, or undertake other non-standard duties, an additional fee or rate of commission may be negotiated. In every instance the seller's commission will be clearly disclosed on your consignment contract.

PAYMENTS

Sellers typically receive the proceeds of the sale of their items within 14 days following the auction. This is subject to the timely payment from the purchasers within the stipulated time frame. Should any delays occur beyond our standard time frame, we will notify you and the reason for any delay. Manshed Auctions Australia will not make payment for and is not liable to make payment for any items sold through us until we receive the full cleared funds from the purchaser

AUCTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The full Auction Terms & Conditions can be found on our website and will be displayed at the registration desk at the auction premises on the day of the auction.
